

Graduate in Physics, Specialized in health statistics. Head of Air Quality Unit of Environmental Protection Agency of Lombardia Region from 2001, he directs the Environmental Protection Agency activities about air quality monitoring, emission inventory and modelling. He coordinates the technical support to Regional Authorities to implement EU Legislation in the field of air quality, to delineate strategies and to adopt measures to improve air quality. He is the responsible for the reporting about air quality to national and regional authorities and to public. He manages the air quality section of ARPA Lombardia website (www.arpalombardia.it/qaria). He directed ARPA Lombardia activities in several EU air quality projects, like, among others, the Air Implementation Pilot and he was a member of AIRUSE team at Arpa Lombardia.